Today we heard the story of Jairus' Daughter

The news was spreading fast that Jesus could heal sick people; an important man called Jairus had heard about him and wanted Him to heal his little girl, who was very sick. Jairus pushed his way through the crowd around Jesus and knelt in front of him. "Please come," he cried, "My little girl is very sick." Jesus followed him through the crowd of people. Jairus' servant arrived. Jairus knew at once that his daughter had died. "Don't waste the Rabbi's time," said the servant, "It is too late now". "Don't be frightened, Jairus," said Jesus. "Just believe in me still." When they arrived at Jairus' house, everyone was crying. "The little girl is not dead," said Jesus. "She is only sleeping." Immediately, tears turned to laughter, for everyone knew that the girl was dead. Jesus sent everyone away, except for Jairus and his wife and three of His followers. They went into the room where the little girl was lying. Jesus gently took her hand and said, "Little girl, get up." Immediately the girl sat up. Jesus said to her parents, "Get her something to eat and don't tell anyone what has happened here today."

Each day we have a Bible verse to learn. Today's verse is about life out of death.
